

The McIntosh Gallery Art & Travel Committee Presents:

The Impressionist Revolution: Monet to Matisse
David Blackwood: Myth & Legend

The Impressionist Revolution: Monet to Matisse: Making its Canadian debut at the AGO, this sweeping overview of Impressionism illustrates the origins of the movement and its considerable impact on two successive generations of avant-garde painters. Drawn from the extensive holdings of the Dallas Museum of Art, the exhibition includes key works by Claude Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Edgar Degas, Berthe Morisot, Vincent van Gogh, Paul Gauguin, Henri Matisse, Piet Mondrian, Edvard Munch, and more. The works on view spotlight a range of experimental artists in a chronological and thematic arrangement that highlights how their techniques and subjects set a new course for modern art in the late 19th and 20th centuries.

David Blackwood: One of Canada's best-known printmakers, David Blackwood (1941–2022), this exhibition is a sweeping tribute to David Blackwood's extraordinary printmaking legacy, where ice, sea, and story capture Newfoundland and Atlantic Canada with quiet power and unforgettable beauty. Tracing Blackwood's career from his first days as an art student at the Ontario College of Art to his final drawing, this expansive retrospective brings together more than 80 drawings and prints, alongside proofs, copperplates, and archival materials.
