

*Please join the McIntosh Gallery Art & Travel Committee for a Day Trip to the - Aga Khan Museum, Toronto

"The aim of the Aga Khan Museum will be to offer unique insights and new perspectives into Islamic civilizations and the cultural threads that weave through history binding us all together. My hope is that the Museum will also be a centre of education and of learning, and that it will act as a catalyst for mutual understanding and tolerance. " His Highness the Aga Khan

THE MOON: A VOYAGE THROUGH TIME: Wherever we are on earth, the moon glows up above, uniting us all. Feel the emotions that inspired centuries of artists and scientists gazing skyward. Explore the many meanings of the moon in Islamic cultures past and present. Observe and imagine the moon in new ways with the exhibition's interactive devices, displays, and installations, including a giant moon sculpture connecting the Museum's first and second floors.

ARCHITECTURE TOUR: We will explore the architecture of the Aga Khan Museum, designed by Fumihiko Maki (Japan), and learn about key features of the site.
