

The McIntosh Gallery Art & Travel Committee Presents:

CASSATT – MCNICOLL: IMPRESSIONISTS BETWEEN WORLDS
WOLFGANG TILLMANS: TO LOOK WITHOUT FEAR

Cassatt-McNicoll: Impressionists Between Worlds - This groundbreaking exhibition brings together for the first time the work of two pioneering women Impressionist painters, Mary Cassatt (American, 1844-1926) and Helen McNicoll (Canadian, 1879-1915). Renowned for their depictions of modern womanhood, their work had a profound impact on the development and proliferation of Impressionism in North America. Drawing upon the AGO’s significant collection of McNicoll works, this original and eye-opening exhibition will be the first in Canadian history to centre Cassatt’s paintings and works on paper

Wolfgang Tillmans: To Look Without Fear - Organized by The Museum of Modern Art, this major retrospective is shown for the first time in Canada. Tillmans’ photography ranges from intimate observations to incisive commentary on the shape of our world today. This momentous exhibition will reveal the full breadth of Tillmans’ creative output to date, with photographs, video projections, sound installations and his ongoing project Truth Study Center on display.
