

The McIntosh Gallery Art & Travel Committee Presents:

Uninvited: Canadian Women Artists in the Modern Moment

“A Like Vision”: The Group of Seven at 100

Don't miss this opportunity to tour the exhibitions of these prominent Canadian artists.

Uninvited: Canadian Women Artists in the Modern Moment is a major exhibition of Canadian women artists that coincides with, and offers commentary on, the centenary celebration of the Group of Seven. The exhibition includes more than 200 pieces of art by a generation of extraordinary women painters, photographers, weavers, bead workers and sculptors from a century ago — pioneers who opened new frontiers for women artists in Canada.

“A Like Vision”: The Group of Seven at 100: In commemoration of the centenary, the McMichael is mounting a landmark exhibition of the group's finest pieces from its permanent collection of more than 280 artworks.
